

November 10th: Remembrance Sunday

Today is our special Service of Remembrance. Once again, I am grateful to the Jenny & Chris, from St John's, for decorating the church. Thanks, also, to Marie and her Girl Guiding colleagues for organising the refreshments; to Mike for helping us with Last Post and Reveillé, and to Adrian Bramley, playing the organ for us today. We are also grateful to Chris for inviting representation from our local schools, uniformed- and voluntary organisations, as well as those from HM Armed Forces, the Emergency Services and local government. We appreciate those who commemorate lost loved ones by laying private wreaths or placing wooden crosses. Today is about looking back, with both sadness and gratitude – that friends', family members' & forebears' sacrifice has helped secure the freedoms we enjoy today. It is also an important annual reminder that, as we sing in the second verse of the famous hymn, 'I vow to thee, my country', there is another country – God's eternal Kingdom, where God is in charge – a place where there will be no more death or crying or pain. Jesus offers each of us this amazing and free gift of salvation, bought at the terribly high price of his own life; and he urges each of us to accept and embrace it fully now – and to know his full assurance and love, both for this life on earth & for the life of eternity.

Other reasons to be thankful: We are really delighted to have heard just this week that this year's Coop Local Community Fund grant to us at St Cuthbert's will be £1836.07! Huge thanks to all those who took the time to vote for us, by assigning their community bonus to us.. We had said, in the original application, that we would use the money to help us develop St Cuthbert's Community Hall, by installing a PA system that could be used for community events & for helping to pay for a cross-cultural community celebration – something which Jag Sharma, our Colburn Town Mayor, has been proposing for some time.

Many thanks also to the staff of our local Coop store at Colburn Broadway for their support – especially to Andrea, the charity support coordinator, and to Will, the manager.

We're grateful to Kelly of King's Church for leading last Sunday's Praise & Worship Service and to Len Hutchinson for preaching on Jesus' saying, 'I am the True Vine'. Many thanks, too, of course, to Jo, Katie & Andrew Stevens for leading our times of worship & prayer so thoughtfully.

Alpha: Our Alpha series tomorrow at 7pm with Session 7, under the title, 'Does God heal today?' Then the Alpha Away Day is on Saturday 16th November, 9.30 – 4pm at Tunstall Village Hall. We are very much looking forward to these wonderful times of learning and sharing together.

Natalie Harker RIP. We continue to give thanks for the life of Natalie, and to hold her parents, brother & friends in our prayers, as we prepare for her funeral on Wednesday. It will take place at St Cuthbert's, Colburn, at 12.30pm, followed by a private Committal at Darlington Crematorium. The family have asked everyone to wear bright colours in memory of Natalie's bright & bubbly personality.

Again, please would anyone with any information which might help the North Yorkshire Police with their enquiries still call the Major Crime Unit on (01609) 643147.
