

Feb 2nd: Presentation of Christ in the Temple

Today we remember the vital moment that Luke records when Joseph and Mary arrive to present Jesus at the Temple and make the requisite sacrifice of a pair of doves, by way of obeying the Jewish Law. They are met by two elderly and faith-filled individuals, Simeon and Anna, whose words of affirmation and prediction are arresting in their impact. Jesus is affirmed as the long-awaited Messiah, and Mary is warned of the suffering that lies ahead for her and for her son, as he assumes his destined role as Saviour. We grateful to have Peter preaching for us again today.

Candlemas Celebration last night at Ripon Cathedral

Last night hundreds of worshippers attended Ripon Cathedral for the annual celebration of Candlemas, lit by 7000 candles, many placed in alcoves 70 feet up.

Lent Resources: The Church of England is finally acknowledging that followers of Jesus Christ really need to understand the vital issues surrounding climate change and environmental protection. As we have recently witnessed almost unprecedented forest fires in New South Wales and desperate flooding in Jakarta – while vast tracts of the Amazon rainforest are going the way of those in Borneo and Sumatra – it is becoming clear that unless something radical is done soon, we may destroy much of the planet in our own lifetime. David Attenborough is about to release a full-length film outlining his suggestions for saving the planet – a film that we should perhaps all go to see?

I still have three copies of Ruth Valerio's book, 'Saying Yes to Life', (this year's Archbishop of Canterbury's Lent Book) going at just £8 each. As explained last week, Dr Ruth Valerio, Global Advocacy and Influencing Director at Tearfund, is a respected theologian, environmentalist & social activist.. It is a great book, and extremely well written! It is designed to be read by individuals either alone as part of a discussion group. To be used alongside this, the Church of England has produced some thought-provoking booklets with 40 daily prayers, reflections and challenges. There are two versions – an adult- & a children's version. We are being asked to use these through Lent. I now have sufficient copies for every family to have one. They work
